Connor O’Brien is in his third season as an assistant coach for the SJU Johnnies. As a 2014 graduate of Minnesota State University-Mankato, O’Brien completed his master’s degree and served as an assistant coach for the Rochester Mayo High School boys’ basketball team in 2014. O’Brien was a member of 3 Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championship teams and 3 NCAA Division II tournament teams for the Mavericks, including the 2011 Final Four. He led MSU to a school-record 30 wins as a senior and was a two-year team captain. A native of New Prague, O’Brien ended his career 22nd in school history with 1,216 points in 125 career games (114 starts).

Additional Staff Members:
- Top High School coaches
- Current and former Saint John’s Basketball Players

Former Johnnie captain, Pat McKenzie is in his 3rd year as head coach after serving 9 years as assistant basketball coach at Saint John’s. McKenzie joined the Johnnies after two seasons as director of basketball operations at Wis.-Green Bay.

As a collegiate player, McKenzie manned the point guard spot as a four-year letter-winner. He led the MIAC in assists as a senior and was a member of the Johnnies’ NCAA Division III Sweet 16 team as a freshman. A Green Bay, Wis. native, McKenzie was named to the 2000 Green Bay Press Gazette All-Area team and was also tabbed Metro Player of the Year for his performance at Notre Dame Academy. McKenzie and his prep coach, Tom Neises, led the Tritons to three straight WISAA state tournament appearances. McKenzie graduated from Saint John’s with a bachelor’s degree in communication and from UW-Green Bay with a master’s degree in educational leadership.

Now in its 51st year, this camp is the longest running basketball camp in the state. Situated on a 2700-acre tract of woodland and lakes, Saint John’s University is 80 miles northwest of Minneapolis and just 12 miles west of St. Cloud.
